PREPARATION FOR IELTS GENERAL MODULE COURSE

Some common Questions that Clients may ask and the Answers they need to know about the PREPARATION for IELTS GENERAL MODULE COURSE at Phoenix appear below.

1. Why should I do the Preparation for IELTS General Module Course?

Answer:

The Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) has introduced some new changes that are related to evidence of English language competency. The Temporary Business Visa (457) now requires employees to demonstrate an IELTS level of 5 before their 457 visas will be renewed.

For Graduates applying for the 497 Visa they will receive an extra 25 points towards Residency if they can demonstrate that they have achieved an IELTS level of 7.0.

The Preparation for IELTS General Module Course will dramatically improve the chances that test candidates have of achieving their desired IELTS goal.

The course teaches you the IELTS test strategies and techniques. Knowing these strategies is a very important aspect of passing the test.

2. What is the Phoenix Advantage?

Answer:

The course is open to everyone. You will experience benefits of face-to-face delivery combined with unlimited access to online practice.

3. Do I have to sit a test to enter the course?

Answer:

No, not normally. When you enrol we will ascertain your reason for entering the course and will ask you for some evidence such as how long you have been working or studying in Australia. This should be enough for us to determine whether you are eligible to enter the course.

4. What will I study in the course?

Answer:

The 4-week course (16 hours in total) will concentrate on training you in the main skills required to pass the IELTS exam at the level you require. The course covers all four skills of Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing. You will have lots of opportunity to practise old IELTS tests and to practice IELTS Interview techniques. This course is designed to cover one of four exams each week and is delivered as a rolling curriculum.

5. What is the difference between the IELTS General Training Module and the Academic Module?

Answer:

The Listening and Speaking components of the two tests are exactly the same. For the Writing component one question is the same and this is the Essay Writing. For the second Writing question on the Academic module the candidate must describe a graph or diagram and for the General module the candidate must Write a Letter. For the Reading test both modules have three sections with 40 multiple choice and short answer questions the only difference is the context of the texts.

6. Who will be my teachers?

Answer:

The Phoenix trainers are all professional fully qualified teachers of English as a Second Language. Many of them have been teaching at Phoenix for many years and many are fully qualified IELTS Examiners so they know the examination format very well.
